BONUS PROBLEM BELIEVED NEARING SOLUTION

LEGION APPROVES THE TWO FOLD PLAN
NOW BEING CONSIDERED BY HOUSE COMMITTEE; WINS NEW SUPPORTERS

Cash Payments Under It
Will Be Only to Men
Entitled to Sums Less
Than Fifty Dollars.

REST IN INSURANCE

By A. O. HAYWARD
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
Washington, March 5.—Small cash payments and paid up insurance policies will form the basis of the new bonus bill soon to be passed by the House, according to all indications today.

With the approval of the American Legion, the House Ways and Means Committee plans to draft a bonus bill providing for cash payments only to those veterans who are entitled to no more than $50 on the basis of $1 per day for home service and $1.25 a day for service overseas. It is estimated that this will cost the treasury only $10,000,000.

The great majority of the veterans however will get insurance policies, the amounts to be based on their length of service.

The plan will have a cash loan value. Representatives of the American Legion, who have been in conference with the framers of the new bonus bill, have agreed to drop the land gift plan and vocational aid features of the bonus legislation vetoed by President Harding in 1922 and to concentrate their efforts on the new two fold plan.

Representative Garner of Texas, leading Democratic member of the Ways and Means Committee indicated today that the Democrats were ready to swing to the two way bonus plan, and the new plan is also approved by Rep. Fish, Republican of New York, leader of the "Veterans Bloc" in the House.

Garner explained the attitude of the minority when he announced his willingness to support a bonus bill which he has opposed for two years. "This is a matter that must be decided," he said. "The quicker it is decided, the better it will be for the country. If we can settle it for $10,000,000 it is better to do so right now and relieve the great uncertainty that has been the threat of a great bonus bill."

"The business of the country will be facing uncertainty until the bonus issue is dropped by Congress and I am prepared to vote for a bonus bill although I have voted against bonus legislation three times. If put on the floor of insurance the government can take care of the obligation from current revenues."

If cash must be paid the Government can issue bonds running two or three years, and the country will absorb the losses, pass the bonus and dispose of the problems."

Chairman Green of the Ways and Means Committee said today that it might not be possible for the committee to bring out the Bonus bill by Saturday because of the division over the two plans involved in the general bill. If the two way plan should come from the committee, as now seems probable, it would be non-partisan.

Charges were inserted today in the committee's record to the effect that President Coolidge had reversed his position on the bonus.

They were in the form of a letter to the President from the Massachusetts department of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. It was pointed out in the letter that President had approved the state bonus bill in Massachusetts while he was governor but had now turned around and declared his opposition to further compensation for the veterans.

WHO KNOWS THIS MAN?

Yesterday afternoon a man whose name is Thomas Beightol suffered a stroke on the B. & P. train, enroute to Clearfield. Dr. Ward O. Wilson was called to attend him and had him removed to the Clearfield Hospital.

Mr. Beightol died there without regaining consciousness and it is not known where he is boarded the train at Jamestown, N. Y., and was enroute to Mill Hall, Pa. His age is about 65.

Two Clay Miners Suffer Injuries By Blast Of Concealed Explosive

Lloyd C. Owens, of Fifth street, and Doyle Bender, of East End, were painfully injured this morning while at work in the clay mines of the Robinson Clay Products Company near the sewer pipe works adjoining the Fourth Ward.

The two men were working together, and while getting ready to put in a shot their drill came in contact with an unexploded shot placed in the clay some time previously. The resultant explosion hurled both men across their "room," filling their faces and bodies with particles of clay and stone.

Owens was the more severely hurt of the two and was removed to the Clearfield hospital for medical treatment, while Bender was able to go home after having his injuries attended to. Owens was painfully lacerated about the face, neck and one hand, while it is feared one of his hips is broken. Bender's injuries consist of cuts and lacerations of the face and neck where the flying fragments struck him.

The accident occurred about 9:30 o'clock this morning.

HAD A LEAP YEAR

We thought we would no doubt hear of somebody in this neck of the woods having a Leap Year birthday but almost gave up until our attention was called to that of Miss Rebecca Colgrave who last Tuesday celebrated her 5th birthday though her age is such that lollypops would hardly be an appropriate birthday gift.

BIRTHDAY

Asks $9,000 Damages For False Arrest And Slandorous Statements

R. D. Aldridge, by his attorneys, Bell, Boulton & Forsyth, entered suit in the Clearfield county courts yesterday against Samuel Albert, alias Salim Alberham, also of Ironva, in which damages to the amount of $9000 are asked for false arrest and slanderous statements.

The statement filed with the notice of suit is to the effect that the plaintiff on Dec. 2, 1923, was conducting a shop for the repair, sale and storage of batteries and accessories. That the defendant was conducting a confectionery and lunch room adjoining the Aldridge place and on the date mentioned Albert did falsely and maliciously and without any reason or probable cause, have a warrant issued for Aldridge charging him with larceny and the receipt of stolen goods.

Thereupon Aldridge was arrested by Constable Fred Rokoskey of Coalport, and taken before Squire Laing and given a hearing. The charges were found to be without foundation and Aldridge was discharged by the Justice.

Aldridge claims that previous to the time of his arrest he was an honest, upright, good citizen and was regarded as such by his neighbors but as a result of this false accusation his reputation for honesty, integrity and credit has been seriously injured.

For the loss of a contract with the Dively Music House of Altoona, Aldridge asks $1,000.

For loss of a contract with the General Motor Supplies Co., of Altoona, $1,000.

For the loss of eighteen batteries taken away from his storage, and another $1,000 is asked.

For the loss of lucrative business with various dealers, $1,000.

In addition to these items $5000 is also asked to cover injury to his general reputation.

COOLIDGE DECLARES AGAINST FREEDOM FOR PHILIPPINES

By GEORGE E. DURNO
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

Washington, March 5.—President Coolidge today announced his confidence in the administration of Gov. General Leonard Wood in the Philippine Islands and declared that the time had not yet come for the United States to grant independence to the Philippine people.

The President's attitude on the Philippine problem was made known in a long letter to Manuel Roxas, Speaker of the House of Representatives in the Philippine legislature and head of the Independence Mission now in this country.

ASK PINCHOT NOT TO "FIRE" PHILLIPS AS THE GAME HEAD

Hunters' Association In Resolution Calls Attention to Great Loss to
All Game Lovers.

A SNAPPY MEETING

Representatives of the two score or more hunting camps adjacent to Clearfield met at the Arbitration room of the Court House last evening at 7:30 o'clock pursuant to call of the Clearfield County Hunters' Association for the purpose of taking some action on the difficulty now existing between Governor Pinchot and John M. Phillips, relative to the Governor's refusal to rename Mr. Phillips to the State Game Commission because Phillips could not see his way clear to the proposed re-inforcing of his oath of office by signing the required Pinchot personal pledge or "bribe" for the position.

Mr. Phillips has been a member of the Game Commission for the past 20 years, in fact has been the dominant figure in that public-spirited organization during all of that time and the fact that Governor Pinchot had refused to reappoint him, for the reason named, was received with shocked surprise by the 600,000 hunters of the state, who have been getting together all thru the state in meetings such as last night's here, for the purpose of voicing their protest at Governor Pinchot's dropping of Mr. Phillips and thus interfering with the work of the Game Commission, whose members are really the servants or administrators of the hunters and their personally-contributed license fund, rather than appendages or chaperones of the governor as he seems to think they are, or would like to have them.

Last night's meeting was presided over by J. D. Connelly, president of the local association, while Linn Stewart acted as secretary. There were present about one hundred hunters and sportsmen from Clearfield, Curwensville, Woodland, Hyde City, Glen Richey, Olanta, Surveyor and other neighboring communities. The following resolution was presented and read to the meeting:—

York Haven, Pa., Bank Cashier Short $12,000; Is Placed In York Jail

Harrisburg, Pa., March 4 (INS).—The shortage of $12,000 which has been discovered in the funds of the State Bank of York Haven will not result in its closing, and the amount will be made good, secretary of Banking Peter G. Cameron announced this afternoon.

John E. Whistler, the cashier who is been arrested and lodged in jail at York. The shortage was discovered by State Bank Examiner Beckman.

BANK BANDITS MEET PROPER TREATMENT IN DETROIT ATTEMPT

Detroit Mich., March 4 (INS).—One bandit is dead another dying and a third is locked in the Hamtramck police station as the result of a raid on the People's National Bank of Hamtramck this afternoon.

Police Sergeant Frank Bora received a bullet wound in the neck in the furious exchange of shots between police and the robbers.

Prior to the entrance of the bandits into the bank, false alarms had been turned in for the police and fire departments.

The police station and fire headquarters are opposite the bank.

The borough council of Punxsutawney at its meeting Monday evening last, decided to tax all trucks, wagons and other vehicles used for commercial purposes on the streets of the town, except farmers coming into town with their farm produce. In its report of the meeting the Punxsutawney Spirit has the following to say concerning the new move:

"A license will have to be paid by all residents using the streets of Punxsutawney as a means to a livelihood with the exception of farmers. Local haulage concerns will have to pay a license of $5 a ton annually for using trucks for transportation purposes in Punxsutawney, such as coal, moving, etc. Men hauling coal by wagon will have to secure licenses at a lesser rate in order to conduct their business here. Out of town people, those having coal banks and living outside the borough will have to pay double the license fee charged men living in the borough. This ordinance was added in order to get some return for the damage done by heavy vehicles destroying the streets."

Penn Public Social Club Holds First Event And It Was A Real Hummer

About 160 employees together with their families and friends, of the Phillipsburg, Clearfield and Madera Districts of the Penn Public Service corporation, attended a very enjoyable party held in the Clearfield office building of the company on Monday evening, March 3.

The party was given by the Clearfield Penn Public Social Club, an organization of employees of this district to foster and promote the social welfare and events of the employees in honor of the employees of the Phillipsburg District.

Varied forms of entertainments provided fun and enjoyment to young and old alike. The historic Penn Public Grand March was followed by round and square dancing, cards, Mah Jongg and many other interesting games. "Going to Jerusalem" kept the happy throng in a continuous uproar until long after midnight.

At 11:00 p. m. a flashlight picture was taken of the party in the social room of the building, which was very artistically and fittingly decorated. The color scheme was green and white. A large keystone, the company emblem, made of red and green crepe paper and bearing in large green letters the words "Penn Public Social Club," adorned one wall of the room and was a feature of the decorations.

At a seasonable hour tasty refreshments consisting of real salad, sandwiches, peanuts, ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

This is only the first of a series of social events to be held by the newly formed social club to whose officers and various committees much credit is due for this delightful occasion. The officers of the club are: W. M. Townsend, President; Chas. Brohl, vice president; Sara Lawhead, Secretary; Emma F. Brown, Treasurer.

The club wishes to take this real of expressing its sincere appreciation of the kindness of the Clearfield Electric Supply Company in furnishing a modern up-to-date radio receiving set for the affair. The set consisted of a Radiola II Receiver with a 3 stage Western Electric amplifier and a loud speaker, and it gave very excellent results. Mr. Ross, of the Electric Supply Company, operated it during the evening and it could be plainly heard and used for dancing over the entire building. Dancing to orchestras in Iowa, Michigan, New York City, Kentucky and many other States was a novel feature of the evening's entertainment.

Out of town employe guests who were present were R. A. Markel and F. L. Hill, of Johnstown, Pa., and H. C. Fleming and W. C. Dickson of Punxsutawney, Pa.

JULE BECQUET IS CHARGED WITH THE MURDER OF JOSEPH KOHL NEAR TOWN OF MADERA; SOLD HIM POISON MOONSHINE

WILL FIESTER, A FLAGMAN ON N.Y.C. IS WRECK VICTIM

As a result of a New York Central engine jumping the track near Camp Run, just west of Reynoldsville, yesterday afternoon, three men are in the Maple Avenue hospital, at DuBois, suffering from severe injuries, one of them being in a serious condition.

The injured: Fred Bates, engineer, Stoneboro, badly scalded and injured, condition considered serious.

Will Feister, Clearfield, flagman, back hurt and possible internal injuries, full extent will not be known until an X-ray is taken today.

Herman Coryll, Hadley, fireman, scalded about the face and neck, and right hand. Leg injured. Condition not serious.

The freight was traveling west at the time of the accident and left the West End, Reynoldsville, about 2:45. It was only a short time after this that the accident occurred. Herman Coryll, the fireman, was able to walk when he was brought to DuBois and as he described the accident it is almost miraculous that any of the men escaped instant death. Mr. Coryll stated that at the time of the accident he was in the act of shoveling in some coal. He felt the jar of the engine leaving the track and endeavored to save himself. That is the last he remembered until he found himself crawling out from the wreckage. He stated that when he crawled out he saw Bates and Feister lying on the ground and he is of the belief that they both jumped. Coryll says the engine was full of scalding steam and he does not know himself how he ever managed to get free from the wreckage.

About a dozen cars behind the engine piled into it, but fortunately their progress was stopped by the tender, so that none of them reached the three men in the wreckage.

Engineer Bates, according to those reaching the scene first, was free from the engine, but evidently was not thrown far enough away to escape the scalding steam and he was badly burned about the head and legs. His condition is regarded as quite serious.

Flagman Feister was riding the engine at the time, having changed places with the head brakeman, while the latter was in the caboose eating his luncheon. He either jumped or was thrown free of the wreckage, sustaining severe injuries to his back.

The other members of the crew hurried to the rescue of their associates and carried them to places of safety, administering first aid. The men were placed in the caboose of the train, and taken to DuBois by a Pennsylvania crew, running as a special. The men were taken immediately to the hospital. It is expected that Mr. Coryll will not be confined to the hospital for any length of time.

As a result of the wreck traffic was tied up on the Low Grade division for some little time.

PHEASANTS AND RABBITS AT GOSHEN

Fred B. Leavy and Joe Chase, "wheeled" out to Goshen camp yesterday morning with a fine bunch of ringneck pheasants, sent here by the State Game Commission for propagating or stocking purposes. The birds, eight in number were shipped here from Jefferson, Ohio and will be kept in a pen in a barn at the camp until the snow leaves when they will be liberated in the woods near the camp.

A batch of ten pairs of Missouri cottontail rabbits are also in the care of Keeper Jim Lucas at the camp and they also will be liberated when the spring opens up.

Had the Reputation of Making Best In That Community But Stuff Claimed Its Victim.

AN OLD OFFENDER

Jus Becquet, a Bigler township moonshiner, who was sentenced by Judge Bell on July 31, 1923, to pay a fine of $100 and costs and serve three months in jail, with the privilege of asking for a parole at the end of thirty days, for violation of the liquor law, is again behind the bars of the Clearfield county jail. This time, in addition to a repetition of the liquor law violation charge, Becquet also faces the much graver charge of murder. The information upon which the charge of murder is based was made by County Coroner Dr. J. I. Pullum before Squire J. W. Ruffner, at Madera, following the coroner's investigation into the circumstances surrounding the death of Joseph Kohl, aged 60 years, which occurred at his little shanty in Madera on Saturday last, mention of which was made in The Progress on Monday evening.

The charge is "unlawful killing," and grows out of the death of Kohl last Saturday, as the result of drinking moonshine liquor supposed to be furnished by Becquet. Sworn evidence received at the coroner's inquest also resulted in a charge of manufacturing, transporting and selling liquor against Becquet.

Facts procured by Coroner Pullum show that Kohl died on Saturday evening, under peculiar circumstances. The matter was brought to the attention of Squire J. W. Ruffner, who procured the county investigator. The coroner found that Becquet appeared at the home of Marcus Kohl on Friday with a half gallon of moonshine and took it to the tool-shanty where Joseph Kohl lived. Saturday morning George and Peter Swarts found Kohl dying in the shanty when they went to work. The empty rum-jug was sitting nearby and Kohl was so feeble he could scarcely speak. Mr. Swarts and his son built a fire, heated coffee and gave it to the dying man and called a physician, but he died on Saturday evening. His body was embalmed, thereby eliminating the possibility of discovering poison in an autopsy and none was held.

Threats to Kill

The coroner also learned that the dead man had a little money and some Liberty Bonds, also that his son and his step-son-in-law had threatened to kill him. There was plenty of evidence to show that Becquet manufactured and sold moonshine liquor, it is said, but the sworn testimony was that he made the best liquor in Bigler township and that his arrest would leave the township without adequate source of supply. It was also alleged that the step-son-in-law made liquor, which was of inferior grade and it is the belief in the Atlantic section that some of this moonshine was switched for some of Becquet's and caused the fatal poisoning. Becquet sold the half gallon of liquor to Joseph Kohl, who was sixty years of age, at $6 for a half gallon.

Holding Three Sixteen Year Old Boy Bandits After Pittsburg Holdup

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 5, (INS).—Three 15-year-old boy bandits are being held in an outlying police station here, authorities admitted today. The boys were arrested last night a short time after they were alleged to have held up a pedestrian and robbed him of a small sum of money. According to police the youthful bandits admit the robbery. They will be arraigned on the charge late today.

The original Declaration of Independence now is safely put away in a specially built vault in the Congressional Library, Washington. (2) Mrs. Coolidge, (3) Speaker of House Gilbert.

EAST END METHODISTS TRIM EPISCOPALIANS

The bowling contest between two of the league teams last night on the Y. M. C. A. alleys was won by the East End Methodist rollers by a majority of 25 pins, winning the first and third games. There were no 500 men, but Fletcher rolled a game without a miss, scoring 202 points. The result of this match brings the Episcopal out from second to third place and raises them to fifth place in the league standing.

Thursday night schedules the contest between the Baptist and St. Francis teams; they will roll off the tie in the standing, each with an average of 133.

INTER-CHURCH BOWLING LEAGUE

The first half of the Inter-Church Bowling League finished Monday night on the Y. M. C. A. alleys when the Presbyterians kept their place in the lead of the other eight bowling teams by taking two out of three from the St. Francis Catholic bowlers. The first game was won by Herbert Roseberry with the highest season score of 234 breaking the record of 216, made by R. E. Pentz last Friday night. He also came within one point of Thomas Bryan, who holds the high string with 545 pins and holds the option on the gold medal award; H. Roseberry with 544 is sure of the silver medal should no one tie or break Bryan's record. Roseberry led off with six straight clean strikes, two spares, and a blow in the tenth spoiled a 250 score. Five splits in the second game lost him 160 pins.

In the second game the St. Francis rollers rallied, Romanio with a triple and eight marks, while Griebel made nine marks, putting them in the lead with 62 pins. They were unable to keep up the good work and were 69

in the rear at the close of the contest. St. Francis.

ODDS AND ENDS
AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

The frankness and truthfulness of innocent childhood is one more demonstrated by the act of a local lad of six years. The other day, with his sister, a couple of years older, the lad was invited to spend the afternoon with a little girl and a year or two the son of the same. Girl-life, the girl started a game of pinches, and after twining about in his seat for a few minutes the boy made for the door to get out, for the purpose of "starting something." Sister, in her capacity of "little mother," had the lad back and foiled several other similar sorties the afternoon dragged along on leaden wings for the boy. Finally came time to go home and before leaving the little girl approached the hostess and said "Friend —, I have had a perfectly lovely afternoon." When it came Dick's turn he sort of spilled the beans when he stood up to the young lady of the house and said, "Yes, and I want you to know, —, that I had a perfectly rotten time."

The cost of sickness in the United States yearly amounts to $2,000,000,000, according to the Health Commissioner. Thomas Davidson told the Rotary Club of New York. He asserted it was possible to live six score years.

To live long one must brush the teeth seven times a day, keep the body clean and eat properly and, most of all, how to take care of the body, he advised.

"Nearly every one dies prematurely," he declared. "Vital statistics show 4 per cent of our population die of old age and the 96 per cent prematurely. Investigation of the 4 per cent even shows that they might have lived longer."

Even Methuselah died prematurely. He was drowned by the flood when 960 years old.

Three-quarters of the children in the United States have dental diseases which could be avoided, Dr. Darrington declared.

With more than 8,000,000 inhabitants of the United States unable to read or write English, the government is annually spending more for boll weevil, cattle tick and hog cholera eradication than for education.

Homes no longer are safe places to live, according to figures made public by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. From a study of fatal accidents among 14,000,000 industrial policyholders, it is shown out of every fifty-eight accidental deaths, nine take place in homes!

For persons between 15 and 24 home is a fairly safe place, but ten out of every 100,000 children less than 15 died in domestic accidents. Among persons more than 55 the rate is 19 per 100,000, and for those more than 65 the rate is 62.

Burns, falls and inhaling poisonous gases are the chief causes of fatal accidents in homes.

Twelve per cent of all firearm accidents occur in homes, and other deaths are blamed on amateur electricians, worn out insulation on wires and neglected cuts and bruises.

We are getting so much wind from the United States Senate these days it might be of interest to the taxpayers to know that the cost to the taxpayer of running the Senate the year beginning July 1, 1921 will amount in round dollars and cents to $2,410,721. Here

ASK PINCHOT NOT
TO "FIRE" PHILLIPS

Hon. Gifford Pinchot,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:

On behalf of the 12,000 hunters of Clearfield county, we wish to acquaint you with the fact that your announced refusal to re-appoint John M. Phillips, of Pittsburgh, to the State Game Commission meets with their very great disapproval.

Mr. Phillips, we consider, is too valuable a man as a Game Commissioner, to warrant you in allowing personal consideration or feeling to actuate you in denying him re-appointment.

No man in Pennsylvania possesses greater qualifications for the position; there is no man in the state the hunters would rather have in charge of the affairs of the Commission which they finance and support independent of all other State revenues. Therefore we sincerely hope you may see your way clear to changing your mind and restore Mr. Phillips to his place on the Game Commission, which place he has so long and so acceptably filled.

There was some opposition to the resolution, the Hon. Joseph E. Phillips and John W. Nelson voicing that opposition. Mr. Phillips was actuated by personal differences with his name sake, while Mr. Nelson feared the action would encourage the "wags." However, when the vote on the resolution was taken it carried with a rush, but 16 votes being registered against it.

For the benefit of the slight opposition to the movement, we take this opportunity to say that the prohibition or anti-prohibition question figured not at all in the minds of the leaders of the movement which resulted in the passage of the above resolution. Those interested were thinking only of the loss to the Game Commission and the interests of the hunters of the state by the dropping of Mr. Phillips. Even Governor Pinchot can make mistakes. It was felt his action in this matter was a mistake and the resolution is intended to call his attention to that mistake and ask him to correct it.

of all other State revenues. Therefore we sincerely hope you may see your way clear to changing your mind and restore Mr. Phillips to his place on the Game Commission, which place he has so long and so acceptably filled.

There was some opposition to the resolution, the Hon. Joseph E. Phillips and John W. Nelson voicing that opposition. Mr. Phillips was actuated by personal differences with his name sake, while Mr. Nelson feared the action would encourage the "wags." However, when the vote on the resolution was taken it carried with a rush, but 16 votes being registered against it.

For the benefit of the slight opposition to the movement, we take this opportunity to say that the prohibition or anti-prohibition question figured not at all in the minds of the leaders of the movement which resulted in the passage of the above resolution. Those interested were thinking only of the loss to the Game Commission and the interests of the hunters of the state by the dropping of Mr. Phillips. Even Governor Pinchot can make mistakes. It was felt his action in this matter was a mistake and the resolution is intended to call his attention to that mistake and ask him to correct it.

PLEASED WITH GRAMPIAN
HOME TALENT

Monday evening I had the pleasure of seeing the play called "Safety First," which was staged by the Edward Arthur Rafferty Post of the American Legion at Grampan, Pa. I have had the pleasure of watching home talent perform on many occasions and was agreeably surprised by the enthusiasm and ability displayed by these young folks.

Miss Mary Rafferty, taking the part of the injured wife and sweetheart, played their parts so realistically that one would suppose it was an actuality instead of pantomime. The part of the suspicious mother-in-law was very ably played by Miss Gertrude Myrter and Mrs. Verne Dean took the part of Zulika, the Turkish maiden. Harry Wertz played the part of Zulika's father and Leo Myrter the part of the sophisticated college boy, who was in love with Zulika. Barney Blattsaddle made a most excellent constable and to cap the climax Buster Rafferty and Merkle Moore ended the play in a riot of fun by trying to explain a thirty day's absence (spent in jail) to the mother-in-law and the girl.

K. L. Bottle rendered vocally

Mother Machree and Mother O'Mine very ably. The finale of this play was a knockout and all members of the cast played their parts to a crowded house.

On account of lack of accommodations, the play will be given again tonight.

Keep the good work up "Kid" and let us have some more of it in the near future.

"Dark" Stars

The United States naval observatory says: "A dark star is an invisible or very feebly luminous star. As it is impossible to estimate the proportion of stars that are 'dark,' it is conceivable that these may greatly outnumber the visible ones. That many dark stars do exist, however, is shown by their effects on the orbits and on the light of certain luminous ones, and by the appearance of nebulæ."

Do You Need a Tonic and Nerve?

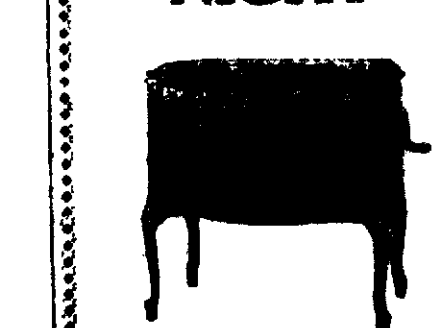

East Allenton, Pa.—"Several years ago when I was in a run-down nervous state of health Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was recommended to me. I took only two bottles but was restored to good health. My nerves have not troubled me since and I have not had to take any sort of a tonic or nerve. If I ever should I would not hesitate at all about taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription again, for I am quite sure it is the most reliable and satisfactory tonic and nerve tonic a woman could take. I am a woman of 38 years of age and I feel well and strong now by obtaining this 'Prescription' of Dr. Pierce's of your druggist in tablets or liquid. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce, President Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for a trial package."

SOCIAL STANDARDS

Mrs. D. F. Langworthy of Winnetka, Ill., national chairman of recreation and social standards of the Parent-Teacher Association—and that is surely enough title for any woman—is not greatly worried about American boys and girls.

"We have become panicky as we have grown older," she told the National Education Association in Chicago. "We look back at our own pure and stainless youth and conclude that the world is going to the dogs."

"Recently I was looking through some magazines published about 1850, and I found that even in that day most of the writers were asking, 'What is the world coming to? The young people of today have no manners and no morals.'"

Is everything, then, all right today? Not at all, Mrs. Langworthy says. Conditions are not so bad as they have been reported, but they are bad, and for this reason:

"The trouble today is not that we have low social standards, but that we haven't any social standards at all. We have standards in athletics and standards in business, but none that apply in the social sphere."

Emily Post might call this untrue, but Mrs. Langworthy would probably retort that the most powerful literary arbiter of social usage and taste has considerably less influence than the Volstead Act.

Standards of manners are needed, indeed. And now if somebody will kindly provide and enforce them, everything will be all right.

FRENZY AT WASHINGTON

Four weeks Congress has been fighting a Battle of Capitol Hill. Instead of waning, the struggle has been gaining volume and intensity. Beginning in a patriotic desire to expose fraud and dishonest mischievous acts or policies, it has developed into what looks like a free-for-all struggle.

A calm spirit of investigation has given place to partisan passion. Though the desire for reform may be really paramount, most clearly in recent days is a frenzied political scramble, with every political group jockeying for campaign advantage and trying to "hang something on" its opponents.

Here is a characteristic paragraph from a correspondent's account of a typical day in the Senate last week:

"With the chamber echoing personal exchanges and acrimonious clashes that have few parallels in the history of that body, marked by shouted charges and counter-charges, with epithets which include 'character assassin', 'murderer', 'falsehood', 'liar' and other terms not often heard in congressional circles, the Senate fought until six o'clock tonight, unable to reach a vote on the pending resolution which was the storm center of today's battle."

Such conduct is not only foolish, because it is not calculated to accomplish what needs accomplishing; it is shameful, disgracing the country those lawmakers represent. The public has not lost its head as Congress has. The public would like to lay a calm hand on Congress's fevered forehead and recall it to its sober senses and its duty.

The job that needs doing at Washington is not a case for a howling mob bent on lynching. It is a job for political and governmental surgeons. And good surgeons keep their heads and shirts on.

Progress Editorials for Women

AN ALL IMPORTANT QUESTION

By FLORENCE DAVIES

Billie, brown eyed and smiling, was serenely "darning" his classmate. "A race with youngsters is better than himself. The race was getting desperate; teacher and mother put their heads together. Wordy conferences were held. Some were in favor of military school, another said, 'leave him to us,' still another suggested, 'Take him home and tutor him a while.'"

The whole incident was typical of many others which have taken place in hundreds of homes. But the interesting thing about it was that thru it all only one question was raised. Nobody said "What ought to be done. Billy for being such a bad boy?" Instead everybody asked, "What is best for the child?"

When we all get to that point in dealing with children, we may begin to hope for a happier, better race. But don't imagine for a minute that the question was "What does the child want?"

Too many modern parents, alas, have interpreted the new attitude toward children and their rights in the best possible manner in life in that destructive way. For merely giving a child what he wants without the slightest reference to what seems best for him is rather more destructive than constructive.

Too many children are not "brought up" these days. They aren't even "dragged up" as the slang expresses it. They "drag up" their parents, who are ignominiously pulled along by the force of their children's desires.

If that had been the case with Billie, he would probably have been left in school with his good friends and his teachers who fixed his sunny smiles in spite of his darning, and there he would have been allowed to dawdle along and be happy in his race with youngsters and better than himself.

But that isn't what happened. He came happily, parents of today are learning to get through the child's mind, and then doing the thing that is best for their mental and physical development.

The older way was to consider the child from a lofty height, much as men used to believe that God guided their destinies, by looking down upon them from afar and pulling a lot of strings that made things happen. So the parent of an older day often treated his children. He gave them what they needed to eat and wear, provided for their education and amusement but he operated on an entirely different plane. If the child prospered, it was well. If, at an early age, it began to look as if the child was going to turn out poorly, it was a matter for regret. But it was considered as more or less inevitable.

Today every child is a living breathing problem, or he should be, and the fact that he lags in his classes or develops a temper isn't accepted as final. It is merely taken as a symptom, and parents and teachers look for the cause and try to remedy it.

In spite of the fact that there are still groups of children who are shamefully wronged by being put to work long before their time, the fact remains that in general we have advanced in our attitude toward children. "What is best for this child's development?" is the touchstone by which many a problem is decided these days.

George Kittleberger, an ex-postmaster of Curwensville, came over from Juniata yesterday to attend the funeral of his late brother-in-law, S.
C. Watts.

Edward Lewis, who some years ago conducted the Central hotel, but who has been living elsewhere for some years, was a Curwensville visitor yesterday. It is understood that he contemplated coming back here to live as soon as he can procure a suitable home.

The funeral services held in the Methodist Church yesterday afternoon over the body of Rev. S. C.
Watts, was largely attended by church people and others. The body was taken to the home of his brother, Dayid Watts, near Kerrmoor, where the regular funeral sermon will be preached Thursday afternoon at 2:30.

Relieves Headache

A little Musterole, rubbed on forehead and temples, will usually drive away headache. A clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard, Musterole is a natural remedy with none of the evil after-effects so often caused by "internal medicine."

To Mothers: Musterole is now made in milder form for babies and small children.

BETTER THAN A MUSTARD PLASTER

Curwensville's Own Column

Dr. A. H. has been confined to his office for several days suffering from a large earache on the back of the neck.

Claver Thompson, manager of the Keynote grocery, and who was confined to his room at the Crownover home suffering from a severe attack of influenza, was out for an hour or two Monday for the first time since his illness.

Some people who are a little more interested in the construction of the defunct Anderson creek bridge are getting on the anxious bench again, and wondering when the structure will be built. The roundabout way in which some people have to get into town with a vehicle of any sort, is rather annoying, and they would like to see some sort of action taken soon one way or another.

Tom Sheridan has altered the interior of his Sweet Shop considerable, greatly to the delight of his hundreds of patrons. A fancy lattice archway now divides the room and screens the ladies' department from that of the main store room.

Judging from all things Curwens-ville industries are about to take on a new and more vigorous business stride than they have enjoyed for several months past. Today, over at the Penna. H. & L. tannery hides will be "hung in" to the number of 1000, almost double what has been done for a year past. At the Dell sole leather tannery, the "hanging in" of skins will also start and for the present at the rate of about 10 per cent. of en-city. This amount will be gradually increased. The prospect of the coal mines working better time is summed up by those on the inside as fair. These things, together with considerable house building in prospect, ought to lead up to Curwensville having an unusually busy summer season as well as a profitable one for everybody concerned.

STOP ITCHING ECZEMA

Penetrating, Antiseptic Zemo
Will Help You

Never mind how often you have tried and failed, you can stop itching, itching Eczema quickly by applying Zemo (furnished by any druggist for 35c.
Extra large bottle, $1.00). Healing begins the moment Zemo is applied. In a short time usually every trace of Eczema, Tetter, Pimples, Rash, Blackheads and similar skin diseases will be removed.

For clearing the skin and making it vigorously healthy, always use Zemo, the penetrating, antiseptic liquid. When others fail it is the one dependable treatment for skin troubles of all kinds. Zemo Sole, 25c—Zemo Ointment, 50c.

The several local unions in this vicinity, connected with the U. M. W.
of A. held meetings last Friday night and elected delegates to a convention to be held in Altoona shortly. It was also decided that Saturday was to be from now on a day of rest and quiet for the miner. On the 12th a referendum vote will be taken by the miners as to whether they will accept or reject the present wage scale, and we were informed Saturday that the indications were that the miners in this district would vote to accept the wage scale now in operation.

Sunday being such a fine, bright sunny day, for the third of March Druggist Leib, who does not often get an opportunity to enjoy a full day's outing, hitched up his auto which had been standing idle nearly all winter, had the wheels equipped with never slip caulk, loaded in his wife and daughter and wheeled over to Tyrone and spent the day with an ex-Cur-wensville family, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Lute. J. L. is going to put in most of his spare time this summer out on his little old chicken farm, growing fruit and berries. He hails from the Baltimore county and understands the job to perfection.

Stack Bowman had a big sale at farm near Bloomington last Friday.
He took in quite a wad of rino. Some time that night four or five fellows visited his home and made an attempt to enter his domicile while he slumbered having in mind the thought that Stack had more money than was good for him to have at one time.
The local bandits were frightened away and fled before an entrance to the house had been gained and Stack's wad was saved.

We were shown a rather unique picture the other day and an old timer at that. It was in possession of Oliver Strunk, and represented the

"New Millport Sheepskin Band and its members." It was a tintype and taken during Grant's first political campaign. The members consisted of Enos Bloom as drum major; Asa Erhard as fife; Oliver Strunk and
Wm. Arnold small drums, and Dave Arnold was the proud possessor of the "bull" drum. During this campaign this drum corps played at nearly every meeting held in the county and won for itself an enviable reputation. Even Old Billy Wallace, the leading wheel horse in Democracy of the county at that date, acknowledged that they made "good music and strong enough to stir the political blood in half hearted Democrats."

A Letter of Information From Workman's Bakery CLEARFIELD, PA.

As we have no broadcasting station here, the next best way to talk to you is thru the newspapers. Please give us your attention for a few minutes. We will be as brief as possible. We want to tell you about saving your bread wrappers of Workman's bread.

First let us say to you THAT WE POSITIVELY DO NOT USE ANY OF THESE WRAPPERS OVER AGAIN!
We have been asked this question by three or four different people, whether we used the wrappers again. This would be impossible even if we wished to do so. Our bread is all wrapped by machinery and the wrappers come in large rolls enough in a roll to wrap about Twenty-Five Hundred loaves.

Our bakery is open to visitors every day from Eight A. M. to Four P. M. We would be pleased to have you visit our bakery. Mr. Johnston will be pleased to show you how the bread is made and wrapped.

We will go one step further to convince any one in doubt about the wrappers being used again. We want you to return the whole wrapper as there is no part that could be cut out because the emblems appear more than once on each wrapper. But you may take a knife or any sharp instrument and cut as many slits in the wrapper as you want and we will redeem them as long as the whole wrapper is there.

All the wrappers you have on hand and up until the time we discontinue the premium department will be redeemed. We will give thirty days notice before we stop redeeming wrappers. Our premium department will be opened very soon. Watch the paper for opening notice. There will be about One Hundred premiums to select from. We will have a premium list printed as soon as premiums are all in. They are on the road at the present time. Do not throw any wrappers away for they are as good as cash to you. Our premium department will be at Workman's Bakery, Nichol Street, Clearfield, Pa. It makes no difference where you buy your Workman's bread, whether at a Workman's store or any other store, we will redeem them.

To our patrons here in Clearfield: We ask you to bundle your wrapper in as neat a roll as possible and put a slip on with amount of wrappers in package, and bring them to the premium department and get your premium. If we are temporarily out of any article we will get it for you as soon as possible. This applies to our customers in other towns, only if you do not want to send the wrappers yourself, take them to your merchant where you buy your bread or to any Workman's store, tell them what premium you want, and they will send them to the premium department and you will receive your premium.

For out of town customers we want to say that your premium will be sent you the following day after your wrappers are received, unless we are out of that special article which we will get for you as soon as possible. In that case we will write to you so you will know why there is a delay in getting your premium. This will all be explained on the premium list.

Start now to save your wrappers if you are not doing so.

We did not mean to take so much of your time. We thank you for reading this letter.

Quite a Difference.
Difference between enthusiasm and gush is that enthusiasm is not applied to the trivial.

SAMUEL MITCHELL WINS FIRST CHECKER MATCH

The first match of the checker tournament for the men of Clearfield was played at the Y. M. C. A. last night between two of the most promising entries of the championship tourney.

Samuel R. Mitchell, a two-hour contest with William E. Muntz, succeeded in taking the last two games after losing the first after a hard battle.

The game was called promptly at 7:45, and Muntz had the edge on his opponent in the beginning, probably the result of preliminary practice with one of Clearfield's oldest and most experienced checker players.

After the first ten minutes he succeeded in gaining a checker on the smiling Mitchell and brought it down to a three to two play with Muntz in the lead. He seemed to play a little then, like a cat does when it has caught the mouse, and gave his opponent two for one, leaving the game with one each, or an evident draw.

But Muntz had the move on his opponent and quickly cornered him and was declared the winner of the first game of the tournament.

The loss just seemed to put Mitchell's wits on edge, and he found himself at his best. He gradually overcame Muntz's aggressive playing and soon had him five to two and won the second game. The third game proved the real acid test, and the by-standers witnessed a thrilling game. Muntz overbooked an exceptional opportunity to play one of the simple book moves and was finally overcome through the steady and scientific game of the winner. Mr. Mitchell will rest until the outcome of the match between Roy I. Fulton and Gordon Herrington, as he is scheduled to play the winner.

Several other games were in process among the men in the lobby, showing that an increasing number of men are enjoying the quiet fellowship of checkers at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday evening sessions.

L. N. Rougeaux and L. J. Shankle, two of the popular bookkeepers of the County National Bank. A number of checker fans have dropped in expressing their regrets at not having entered the tournament; others have handed their names in for a chess tournament, which promises to attract even more attention, and a new group of men into friendly contests.

There is felt a real need for one or two more checker tables in addition to the handsome one now in use in the Y. M. C. A. lobby, which is made of heavy slate with colors burned on by an expert workman, and covered with glass.

M. P. MacDonald, whose business takes up his time every night except Saturday, has consented to help arouse interest in the checker tournament for the Intermediate members of the Y. M. C. A., boys from 15 to 18.

To Our Subscribers

Last year we added thirty millions of dollars' worth of plant for the telephone service of Pennsylvania. We told you about this through the public press and by various other means. We want you to know our job and how we are doing it. In a public service such as this the public should have all the facts.

Many of our subscribers are asking the questions—Why all this rush? Why all these new buildings? Construction cost are high these days. Why this tremendous expansion of your switchboards and lines? Why not take it a little easier?

Fair questions! And they merit a four-square answer.

During the next few weeks we will endeavor to tell exactly what we have been doing, what we expect to do in the next four or five years—and most important of all—why we are doing it.

WILLIAMS—LEWIS

On Saturday morning at ten o'clock Rev. E. C. Reeve, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, married Miss D. F. Williams, and Miss Myrtle V. Lewis in the manse. Mr. Williams' home is in Berks, and the bride's home is in Montvale. They were accompanied by Miss Margaret Williams, sister of the groom. Heartiest congratulations.

POPULAR COUPLE WED

Francis Kelly, of Curwensville and Miss Julia Dockett, of Clearfield were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Father Ryan at St. Francis Church at four o'clock yesterday afternoon. The attendants were R. E. Dockett and Owen Kelly. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the bride's home, after which the newly wedded couple left for Buffalo and Endicott, followed by best wishes of a host of friends. The bride has been a valued employee of the A. W. Lounsbury Company for the past two years and the groom is an employee of the Erie Mining Company at Curwensville.

STERLING—HUTTON

Lawrence R. Sterling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sterling, of Kermoo, and Miss Madeline L. Hutton, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus T. Hutton, of 210 McBride street were united in marriage at 7:45 this morning in the Lutheran parsonage by the Rev. E. Roy Hansen. The beautiful ring ceremony of the church was used. The bridegroom is a telegraph operator for the Western Union. They will reside at 610 McBride street. The many friends of these young people wish them a happy voyage over the sea of life.

Woman Surprises Her Friends

"After a spell of Typhoid Fever I years ago I began to suffer from indigestion and gas in my stomach and colic attacks. This gradually became so bad that my doctor advised an operation for gall stones. A friend advised me to try May's Wonderful Remedy which I did with splendid results. My friends were astonished at my rapid improvement. I have no more bloating and can eat anything I wish. It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded at all druggists."

OBITUARY

ROLAND TOOTE

Roland Toote, a former resident of Wood and Clearfield died at his home in Pittsburgh Friday morning, February 29, 1924, at 7:30 o'clock. He was a sufferer of asthma for a number of years but about four weeks ago he suffered an acute attack which caused his death.

He was the son of the late John and Sarah Toote of Clearfield and was born February 17, 1863, being aged 56 years and 12 days.

On the 25th day of January 1897, Mr. Toote was united in marriage to Miss Ella Young of Woodland, who survives him. To this union two sons and one daughter were born. Namely, Mrs. F. E. Johnstonbaugh, of Clearfield, David Beryl, deceased and

Clarence E. Toote, of Pittsburgh. He is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Thomas of Akron, Ohio; William, of Lancaster; Frank of DuBois; Mrs. A. Mader, of Galitzin; Mrs. George Knorr, of Pittsburgh; and Jesse and Ira, of Clearfield. Mr. Toote will be remembered by a number of his friends as a great baseball player in his earlier days.

He was taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. E. Johnstonbaugh, 18 William street and funeral services were conducted in the U. B. Church of Woodland Monday afternoon, March 3rd at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. B. H. officiating and interment in Bradford cemetery.

FORMER LOCAL GIRL DIES

Mary W. Baker, a graduate of the class of 1923 from the Clearfield Hospital training school for nurses, died at her home at the Harrisburg hospital. Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 10:30 at Gettysburg, Pa.

The deceased was the daughter of

Rev. Baker of St. John's Lutheran church. Miss Baker was acting Superintendent of one of the Harrisburg hospitals. We understand her death was caused by diphtheria.

FUNERAL OF S. C. WATTS

The funeral of S. C. Watts will be held at the home of his brother D. H. Watts, Ferguson Township on Thursday, at 2:30 p. m.

EAST END RESIDENT DIES

Antonio Brucina, a respected resident of Eleventh street, Fourth Ward, passed away at the Clearfield hospital Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Death was due to internal hemorrhages. The deceased was an industrious, hard-working man and had been an employee of the Harrison-Walker Refractories Company for a number of years.

He was aged 44 years and is survived by a widow and six children.

The funeral will be held from St. Francis Church at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. Interment will be made in Calvary cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fontenoy entertained a number of their friends at a p. m. Luncheon party at their home on Second street last night. The evening was spent in playing cards until 11:30 p. m. when each person was given a musical instrument, (favor) and for the next fifteen minutes the air was filled with melodious sounds, after which delicious refreshments were served. The guests then departed for their various homes.

During their host and hostess of the evening had a very pleasant evening.

A party was given at the home of Mrs. Henry Wiggins last evening in honor of Irvin Williams of Pittsburgh. Refreshments were served and all had an enjoyable time.

A Wistful Girl's Timid Smile

Plaintive beauty, dainty grace and lissome figure stirred the pulse of a rich nobleman whose hirelings stole her away from her blind sister and took her to his midnight fete. A handsome young aristocrat lost his heart, avenged her with his sword, took her to safety. She met another—a leader of the People. He, too, loved her. The fatal duel in the midst of the gorgeous splendors of a regal orgy as thousands of the starving rabble clamored at the palace gates; the love of the young aristocrat for the country-bred Henriette, and the love she inspired in the heart of Danton, leader of the uprising against the French Monarchy—These things, each punctuated by a kiss, formed a chain of circumstances that quickened the seditious People into open and armed rebellion—that brought the Fall of the Bastille—the "Feast of Reason" when all Paris went mad—the "Dance of the Carmagnole" when woman led the wild revelry. Then came the Commune—the Reign of Terror—the Guillotine—the downfall of Danton, leader—the sentence of death—the reprieve—Peace! And so, all because of Love, a King was deposed, a great monarchy fell, a great republic came into being.

Milk Consuming Peoples Outstrip Nations Using Other Foods

The Swiss and Swedish nations have so far outstripped the Chinese and Japanese that there is little or no comparison. China is probably one of the oldest nations on the earth, yet as a whole they are NOT a milk consuming people, and their smallness of stature shows it—their food lacks the vital dietary needs to make their bodies attain larger proportions. Then, just look at the Swedish and Swiss. Here you will find two nations, high in intellectual attainments and sturdy of body—they consume, probably, more milk and milk products than any other nations of the globe with the possible exception of the United States.

This is a concrete example—an example which stands forth among the nations of the earth and one which you may ponder over with this idea in mind: Have our wagonman place a greater amount of milk in your home and begin to use it more in your own diet, not necessarily as a beverage but in the preparation of dishes in your daily menus.

And When You Use Our Milk You Are Sure That You Are Getting Pure Milk As It Has Gone Thru The Pasteurization Process.

BONUS PROBLEM BELIEVED NEARING SOLUTION

LEGION APPROVES THE TWO FOLD PLAN
NOW BEING CONSIDERED BY HOUSE
COMMITTEE; WINS NEW SUPPORTERS

Cash Payments Under It
Will Be Only to Men
Entitled to Sums Less
Than Fifty Dollars.

REST IN INSURANCE

By A. O. HAYWARD
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
Washington, March 5.—Small cash payments and paid up insurance policies will form the basis of the new bonus bill soon to be passed by the House, according to all indications today.

With the approval of the American Legion, the House Ways and Means Committee plans to draft a bonus bill providing for cash payments only to those veterans who are entitled to no more than $50 on the basis of $1 per day for home service and $1.25 a day for service overseas. It is estimated that this will cost the treasury only $10,000,000.

The great majority of the veterans however will get insurance policies, the amounts to be based on their length of service.

The policies will have a cash loan value. Representatives of the American Legion, who have been in conference with the framers of the new bonus bill, have agreed to drop the land gift plan and vocational aid features of the bonus legislation vetoed by President Harding in 1922 and to concentrate their efforts on the new two fold plan.

Representative Garner of Texas, leading Democratic member of the Ways and Means Committee indicated today that the Democrats were ready to swing to the two way bonus plan, and the new plan is also approved by Rep. Fish, Republican of New York, leader of the "Veterans Bloc" in the House.

Garner explained the attitude of the minority when he announced his willingness to support a bonus bill which he has opposed for two years. "This is a matter that must be decided," he said. "The quicker it is decided, the better it will be for the country. If we can settle it for $10,000,000, it is better to do so right now and relieve the great uncertainty that lies behind the threat of a great bonus payment."

"The business of the country will be facing uncertainty until the bonus issue is dropped by Congress and I am prepared to vote for a bonus bill although I have voted against bonus legislation three times. If put on the floor of insurance the government can take care of the obligation from current revenues."

If cash must be paid the Government can issue bonds running two or three years, and the country will absorb the losses, pass the bonus and dispose of the problems."

Chairman Green of the Ways and Means Committee said today that it might not be possible for the committee to bring out the Bonus bill by Saturday because of the division over the two plans involved in the general bill. If the two way plan should come from the committee, as now seems probable, it would be non-partisan.

Charges were inserted today in the committee's record to the effect that President Coolidge had reversed his position on the bonus.

They were in the form of a letter to the President from the Massachusetts department of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. It was pointed out in the letter that President had approved the state bonus bill in Massachusetts while he was governor but had now turned around and declared his opposition to further compensation for the veterans.

Two Clay Miners Suffer Injuries By Blast Of Concealed Explosive

Lloyd C. Owens, of Fifth street, and Doyle Bender, of East End, were painfully injured this morning while at work in the clay mines of the Robinson Clay Products Company near the sewer pipe works adjoining the Fourth Ward.

The two men were working together, and while getting ready to put in a shot their drill came in contact with an unexploded shot placed in the clay some time previously. The resultant explosion hurled both men across their "room," filling their faces and bodies with particles of clay and stone.

Owens was the more severely hurt of the two and was removed to the Clearfield hospital for medical treatment, while Bender was able to go home after having his injuries attended to. Owens was painfully lacerated about the face, neck and one hand, while it is feared one of his hips is broken. Bender's injuries consist of cuts and lacerations of the face and neck where the flying fragments struck him.

The accident occurred about 9:30 o'clock this morning.

Asks $9,000 Damages For False Arrest And Slandorous Statements

R. D. Aldridge, by his attorneys, Bell, Boulton & Forsyth, entered suit in the Clearfield county courts yesterday against Samuel Albert, alias Salim Alberham, also of Irona, in which damages to the amount of $9000 are asked for false arrest and slanderous statements.

The statement filed with the notice of suit is to the effect that the plaintiff on Dec. 2, 1923, was conducting a shop for the repair, sale and storage of batteries and accessories. That the defendant was conducting a confectionery and lunch room adjoining the Aldridge place and on the date mentioned Albert did falsely and maliciously and without any reason or probable cause, have a warrant issued for Aldridge charging him with larceny and the receipt of stolen goods.

Thereupon Aldridge was arrested by Constable Fred Rokoskey of Coalport, and taken before Squire Laing and given a hearing. The charges were found to be without foundation and Aldridge was discharged by the Justice.

Aldridge claims that previous to the time of his arrest he was an honest, upright, good citizen and was regarded as such by his neighbors but as a result of this false accusation his reputation for honesty, integrity and credit has been seriously injured.

For the loss of a contract with the Dively Music House of Altoona, Aldridge asks $1,000.

For loss of a contract with the General Motor Supplies Co., of Altoona, $1,000.

For the loss of eighteen batteries taken away from his storage, and another $1,000 is asked.

For the loss of lucrative business with various dealers, $1,000.

In addition to these items $5000 is also asked to cover injury to his general reputation.

COOLIDGE DECLARES AGAINST FREEDOM FOR PHILIPPINES

By GEORGE E. DURNO
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
Washington, March 5.—President Coolidge today announced his confidence in the administration of Gov. General Leonard Wood in the Philippine Islands and declared that the time had not yet come for the United States to grant independence to the Philippine people.

The President's attitude on the Philippine problem was made known in a long letter to Manuel Roxas, Speaker of the House of Representatives in the Philippine legislature and head of the Independence Mission now in this country.

ASK PINCHOT NOT TO "FIRE" PHILLIPS AS THE GAME HEAD

Hunters' Association In Resolution Calls Attention to Great Loss to
All Game Lovers.

A SNAPPY MEETING

Representatives of the two score or more hunting camps adjacent to Clearfield met at the Arbitration room of the Court House last evening at 7:30 o'clock pursuant to call of the Clearfield County Hunters' Association for the purpose of taking some action on the difficulty now existing between Governor Pinchot and John M. Phillips, relative to the Governor's refusal to rename Mr. Phillips to the State Game Commission because Phillips could not see his way clear to the proposed re-inforcing of his oath of office by signing the required Pinchot personal pledge or "bribe" for the position.

Mr. Phillips has been a member of the Game Commission for the past 20 years, in fact has been the dominant figure in that public-spirited organization during all of that time and the fact that Governor Pinchot had refused to reappoint him, for the reason named, was received with shocked surprise by the 600,000 hunters of the state, who have been getting together all thru the state in meetings such as last night's here, for the purpose of voicing their protest at Governor Pinchot's dropping of Mr. Phillips and thus interfering with the work of the Game Commission, whose members are really the servants or administrators of the hunters and their personally-contributed license fund, rather than appendages or chaperones of the governor as he seems to think they are, or would like to have them.

Last night's meeting was presided over by J. D. Connelly, president of the local association, while Linn Stewart acted as secretary. There were present about one hundred hunters and sportsmen from Clearfield, Curwensville, Woodland, Hyde City, Glen Richey, Olanta, Surveyor and other neighboring communities. The following resolution was presented and read to the meeting:—

BANK BANDITS MEET PROPER TREATMENT IN DETROIT ATTEMPT

Detroit Mich., March 4 (INS).—One bandit is dead another dying and a third is locked in the Hamtramck police station as the result of a raid on the People's National Bank of Hamtramck this afternoon.

Police Sergeant Frank Bora received a bullet wound in the neck in the furious exchange of shots between police and the robbers.

Prior to the entrance of the bandits into the bank, false alarms had been turned in for the police and fire departments.

The police station and fire headquarters are opposite the bank.

The borough council of Punxsutawney at its meeting Monday evening last, decided to tax all trucks, wagons and other vehicles used for commercial purposes on the streets of the town, except farmers coming into town with their farm produce. In its report of the meeting the Punxsutawney Spirit has the following to say concerning the new move:

"A license will have to be paid by all residents using the streets of Punxsutawney as a means to a livelihood with the exception of farmers. Local haulage concerns will have to pay a license of $5 a ton annually for using trucks for transportation purposes in Punxsutawney, such as coal, moving, etc. Men hauling coal by wagon will have to secure licenses at a lesser rate in order to conduct their business here. Out of town people, those having coal banks and living outside the borough will have to pay double the license fee charged men living in the borough. This ordinance was added in order to get some return for the damage done by heavy vehicles destroying the streets."

Penn Public Social Club Holds First Event And It Was A Real Hummer

About 160 employees together with their families and friends, of the Phillipsburg, Clearfield and Madera Districts of the Penn Public Service corporation, attended a very enjoyable party held in the Clearfield office building of the company on Monday evening, March 3.

The party was given by the Clearfield Penn Public Social Club, an organization of employees of this district to foster and promote the social welfare and events of the employees in honor of the employees of the Phillipsburg District.

Varied forms of entertainments provided fun and enjoyment to young and old alike. The historic Penn Public Grand March was followed by round and square dancing, cards, Mah Jongg and many other interesting games. "Going to Jerusalem" kept the happy throng in a continuous uproar until long after midnight.

At 11:00 p. m. a flashlight picture was taken of the party in the social room of the building, which was very artistically and fittingly decorated. The color scheme was green and white. A large keystone, the company emblem, made of red and green crepe paper and bearing in large green letters the words "Penn Public Social Club," adorned one wall of the room and was a feature of the decorations.

At a seasonable hour tasty refreshments consisting of real salad, sandwiches, peanuts, ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

This is only the first of a series of social events to be held by the newly formed social club to whose officers and various committees much credit is due for this delightful occasion. The officers of the club are: W. M. Townsend, President; Chas. Brohl, vice president; Sara Lawhead, Secretary; Emma F. Brown, Treasurer.

The club wishes to take this real of expressing its sincere appreciation of the kindness of the Clearfield Electric Supply Company in furnishing a modern up-to-date radio receiving set for the affair. The set consisted of a Radiola II Receiver with a 3 stage Western Electric amplifier and loud speaker, and it gave very excellent results. Mr. Ross, of the Electric Supply Company, operated it during the evening and it could be plainly heard and used for dancing over the entire building. Dancing to orchestras in Iowa, Michigan, New York City, Kentucky and many other States was a novel feature of the evening's entertainment.

Out of town employee guests who were present were R. A. Markel and F. L. Hill, of Johnstown, Pa., and H. C. Fleming and W. C. Dickson of Punxsutawney, Pa.

JULE BECQUET IS CHARGED WITH THE MURDER OF JOSEPH KOHL NEAR TOWN OF MADERA; SOLD HIM POISON MOONSHINE

WILL FIESTER, A FLAGMAN ON N.Y.C. IS WRECK VICTIM

As a result of a New York Central engine jumping the track near Camp Run, just west of Reynoldsville, yesterday afternoon, three men are in the Maple Avenue hospital, at DuBois, suffering from severe injuries, one of them being in a serious condition.

The injured: Fred Bates, engineer, Stoneboro, badly scalded and injured, condition considered serious.

Will Feister, Clearfield, flagman, back hurt and possible internal injuries, full extent will not be known until an X-ray is taken today.

Herman Coryll, Hadley, fireman, scalded about the face and neck, and right hand. Leg injured. Condition not serious.

The freight was traveling west at the time of the accident and left the West End, Reynoldsville, about 2:45. It was only a short time after this that the accident occurred. Herman Coryll, the fireman, was able to walk when he was brought to DuBois and as he described the accident it is almost miraculous that any of the men escaped instant death. Mr. Coryll stated that at the time of the accident he was in the act of shoveling in some coal. He felt the jar of the engine leaving the track and endeavored to save himself. That is the last he remembered until he found himself crawling out from the wreckage. He stated that when he crawled out he saw Bates and Feister lying on the ground and he is of the belief that they both jumped. Coryll says the engine was full of scalding steam and he does not know himself how he ever managed to get free from the wreckage.

About a dozen cars behind the engine piled into it, but fortunately their progress was stopped by the tender, so that none of them reached the three men in the wreckage.

Engineer Bates, according to those reaching the scene first, was free from the engine, but evidently was not thrown far enough away to escape the scalding steam and he was badly burned about the head and legs. His condition is regarded as quite serious.

Flagman Feister was riding the engine at the time, having changed places with the head brakeman, while the latter was in the caboose eating his luncheon. He either jumped or was thrown free of the wreckage, sustaining severe injuries to his back.

The other members of the crew hurried to the rescue of their associates and carried them to places of safety, administering first aid. The men were placed in the caboose of the train, and taken to DuBois by a Pennsylvania crew, running as a special. The men were taken immediately to the hospital. It is expected that Mr. Coryll will not be confined to the hospital for any length of time.

As a result of the wreck traffic was tied up on the Low Grade division for some little time.

PHEASANTS AND RABBITS AT GOSHEN

Fred B. Leavy and Joe Chase, "wheeled" out to Goshen camp yesterday morning with a fine bunch of ringneck pheasants, sent here by the State Game Commission for propagating or stocking purposes. The birds, eight in number were shipped here from Jefferson, Ohio and will be kept in a pen in a barn at the camp until the snow leaves when they will be liberated in the woods near the camp.

A batch of ten pairs of Missouri cottontail rabbits are also in the care of Keeper Jim Lucas at the camp and they also will be liberated when the spring opens up.

Had the Reputation of Making Best In That Community But Stuff Claimed Its Victim.

AN OLD OFFENDER

Jus Becquet, a Bigler township moonshiner, who was sentenced by Judge Bell on July 31, 1923, to pay a fine of $100 and costs and serve three months in jail, with the privilege of asking for a parole at the end of thirty days, for violation of the liquor law, is again behind the bars of the Clearfield county jail. This time, in addition to a repetition of the liquor law violation charge, Becquet also faces the much graver charge of murder. The information upon which the charge of murder is based was made by County Coroner Dr. J. I. Polhem before Squire J. W. Ruffner, at Madera, following the coroner's investigation into the circumstances surrounding the death of Joseph Kohl, aged 60 years, which occurred at his little shanty in Madera on Saturday last, mention of which was made in The Progress on Monday evening.

The charge is "unlawful killing," and grows out of the death of Kohl last Saturday, as the result of drinking moonshine liquor supposed to be furnished by Becquet. Sworn evidence received at the coroner's inquest also resulted in a charge of manufacturing, transporting and selling liquor against Becquet.

Facts procured by Coroner Polhem show that Kohl died on Saturday evening, under peculiar circumstances. The matter was brought to the attention of Squire J. W. Ruffner, who procured the county investigator. The coroner found that Becquet appeared at the home of Marcus Kohl on Friday with a half gallon of moonshine and took it to the tool-shanty where Joseph Kohl lived. Saturday morning George and Peter Swarts found Kohl dying in the shanty when they went to work. The empty rum-jug was sitting nearby and Kohl was so feeble he could scarcely speak. Mr. Swarts and his son built a fire, heated coffee and gave it to the dying man and called a physician, but he died on Saturday evening. His body was embalmed, thereby eliminating the possibility of discovering poison in an autopsy and none was held.

Threats to Kill

The coroner also learned that the dead man had a little money and some Liberty Bonds, also that his son and his step-son-in-law had threatened to kill him. There was plenty of evidence to show that Becquet manufactured and sold moonshine liquor, it is said, but the sworn testimony was that he made the best liquor in Bigler township and that his arrest would leave the township without adequate source of supply. It was also alleged that the step-son-in-law made liquor, which was of inferior grade and it is the belief in the Atlantic section that some of this moonshine was switched for some of Becquet's and caused the fatal poisoning. Becquet sold the half gallon of liquor to Joseph Kohl, who was sixty years of age, at $6 for a half gallon.

Holding Three Sixteen Year Old Boy Bandits After Pittsburg Holdup

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 5, (INS).—Three 15-year-old boy bandits are being held in an outlying police station here, authorities admitted today. The boys were arrested last night a short time after they were alleged to have held up a pedestrian and robbed him of a small sum of money. According to police the youthful bandits admit the robbery. They will be arraigned on the charge late today.

EAST END METHODISTS TRIM EPISCOPALIANS

The bowling contest between two of the league teams last night on the Y. M. C. A. alleys was won by the East End Methodist rollers by a majority of 25 pins, winning the first and third games. There were no 500 men, but Fletcher rolled a game without a miss, scoring 202 points. The result of this match brings the Episcopal out from second to third place and raises them to fifth place in the league standing.

Thursday night schedules the contest between the Baptist and St. Francis teams; they will roll off the tie in the standing, each with an average of 133.

INTER-CHURCH BOWLING LEAGUE

The first half of the Inter-Church Bowling League finished Monday night on the Y. M. C. A. alleys when the Presbyterians kept their place in the lead of the other eight bowling teams by taking two out of three from the St. Francis Catholic bowlers. The first game was won by Herbert Roseberry with the highest season score of 234 breaking the record of 216, made by R. E. Pentz last Friday night. He also came within one point of Thomas Bryan, who holds the high string with 545 pins and holds the option on the gold medal award; H. Roseberry with 544 is sure of the silver medal should no one tie or break Bryan's record. Roseberry led off with six straight clean strikes, two spares, and a blow in the tenth spoiled a 250 score. Five splits in the second game lost him 160 pins.

In the second game the St. Francis rollers rallied, Romanio with a triple and eight marks, while Griebel made nine marks, putting them in the lead with 62 pins. They were unable to keep up the good work and were 69

in the rear at the close of the contest. St. Francis.

The Royal Welsh Singers who appeared at the High School Gymnasium Wednesday night pleased a large audience that went out to hear them.

This is the second appearance of the Royal Welsh Singers in Herrin and both times won the plaudits of the public. Their music is always of the highest order. The quartet is composed of three men and one lady. The manner in which their voices blend together in their program is indeed very entrancing. The solos and duets were very pleasing. The reader was quite superb.

AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

The frankness and truthfulness of innocent childhood is one more demonstrated by the act of a local lad of six years. The other day, with his sister, a couple of years older, the lad was invited to spend the afternoon with a little girl and a year or two the son of the same. Girl-life, the girl started a game of pinches, and after twirling about in his seat for a few minutes the boy made for the door to get outside for the purpose of "starting something." Sister, in her capacity of "little mother," backed the lad back and foiled several other similar sorties in the afternoon dragged along on leaden wings for the boy. Finally came time to go home and before leaving the little girl approached the hostess and said "Friend —, I have had a perfectly lovely afternoon." When it came Dick's turn he sort of spilled the beans when he stood up to the young lady of the house and said, "Yes, and I want you to know, —, that I had a perfectly rotten time."

The cost of sickness in the United States yearly amounts to $2,000,000,000, according to the Health Commissioner. Thomas Davidson told the Rotary Club of New York. He asserted it was possible to live six score years.

To live long one must brush the teeth seven times a day, keep the body clean and eat properly and, most of all, how to take care of the body, he advised.

"Nearly every one dies prematurely," he declared. "Vital statistics show 4 per cent of our population die of old age and the 96 per cent prematurely. Investigation of the 4 per cent even shows that they might have lived longer."

Even Methuselah died prematurely. He was drowned by the flood when 960 years old.

Three-quarters of the children in the United States have dental diseases which could be avoided, Dr. Darrington declared.

With more than 8,000,000 inhabitants of the United States unable to read or write English, the government is annually spending more for boll weevil, cattle tick and hog cholera eradication than for education.

Homes no longer are safe places to live, according to figures made public by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. From a study of fatal accidents among 14,000,000 industrial policyholders, it is shown out of every fifty-eight accidental deaths, nine take place in homes!

For persons between 15 and 24 home is a fairly safe place, but ten out of every 100,000 children less than 15 died in domestic accidents. Among persons more than 55 the rate is 19 per 100,000, and for those more than 65 the rate is 62.

Burns, falls and inhaling poisonous gases are the chief causes of fatal accidents in homes.

Twelve per cent of all firearm accidents occur in homes, and other deaths are blamed on amateur electricians, worn out insulation on wires and neglected cuts and bruises.

We are getting so much wind from the United States Senate these days it might be of interest to the taxpayers to know that the cost to the taxpayer of running the Senate the year beginning July 1, 1921 will amount in round dollars and cents to $2,410,721. Here

TO "FIRE" PHILLIPS

Hon. Gifford Pinchot,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:

On behalf of the 12,000 hunters of Clearfield county, we wish to acquaint you with the fact that your announced refusal to re-appoint John M. Phillips, of Pittsburgh, to the State Game Commission meets with their very great disapproval.

Mr. Phillips, we consider, is too valuable a man as a Game Commissioner, to warrant you in allowing personal considerations or feeling to actuate you in denying him re-appointment.

No man in Pennsylvania possesses greater qualifications for the position; there is no man in the state the hunters would rather have in charge of the affairs of the Commission which they finance and support independent of all other State revenues. Therefore we sincerely hope you may see your way clear to changing your mind and restore Mr. Phillips to his place on the Game Commission, which place he has so long and so acceptably filled.

There was some opposition to the resolution, the Hon. Joseph E. Phillips and John W. Nelson voicing that opposition. Mr. Phillips was actuated by personal differences with his name sake, while Mr. Nelson feared the action would encourage the "wags." However, when the vote on the resolution was taken it carried with a rush, but 16 votes being registered against it.

For the benefit of the slight opposition to the movement, we take this opportunity to say that the prohibition or anti-prohibition question figured not at all in the minds of the leaders of the movement which resulted in the passage of the above resolution. Those interested were thinking only of the loss to the Game Commission and the interests of the hunters of the state by the dropping of Mr. Phillips. Even Governor Pinchot can make mistakes. It was felt his action in this matter was a mistake and the resolution is intended to call his attention to that mistake and ask him to correct it.

HOME TALENT

Monday evening I had the pleasure of seeing the play called "Safety First," which was staged by the Edward Arthur Rafferty Post of the American Legion at Grampan, Pa. I have had the pleasure of watching home talent perform on many occasions and was agreeably surprised by the enthusiasm and ability displayed by these young folks.

Miss Mary Rafferty, taking the part of the injured wife and sweetheart, played their parts so realistically that one would suppose it was an actuality instead of pantomime. The part of the suspicious mother-in-law was very ably played by Miss Gertrude Myrter and Mrs. Verne Dean took the part of Zulika, the Turkish maiden. Harry Wertz played the part of Zulika's father and Leo Myrter the part of the sophisticated college boy, who was in love with Zulika. Barney Blattsaddle made a most excellent constable and to cap the climax Buster Rafferty and Merkle Moore ended the play in a riot of fun by trying to explain a thirty day's absence (spent in jail) to the mother-in-law and the girl.

"Dark" Stars

The United States naval observatory says: "A dark star is an invisible or very feebly luminous star. As it is impossible to estimate the proportion of stars that are 'dark,' it is conceivable that these may greatly outnumber the visible ones. That many dark stars do exist, however, is shown by their effects on the orbits and on the light of certain luminous ones, and by the occurrence of nebs."

SOCIAL STANDARDS

Mrs. D. F. Langworthy of Winnetka, Ill., national chairman of recreation and social standards of the Parent-Teacher Association—and that is surely enough title for any woman—is not greatly worried about American boys and girls.

"We have become panicky as we have grown older," she told the National Education Association in Chicago. "We look back at our own pure and stainless youth and conclude that the world is going to the dogs."

"Recently I was looking through some magazines published about 1850, and I found that even in that day most of the writers were asking, 'What is the world coming to? The young people of today have no manners and no morals.'"

Is everything, then, all right today? Not at all, Mrs. Langworthy says. Conditions are not so bad as they have been reported, but they are bad, and for this reason:

"The trouble today is not that we have low social standards, but that we haven't any social standards at all. We have standards in athletics and standards in business, but none that apply in the social sphere."

Emily Post might call this untrue, but Mrs. Langworthy would probably retort that the most powerful literary arbiter of social usage and taste has considerably less influence than the Volstead Act.

Standards of manners are needed, indeed. And now if somebody will kindly provide and enforce them, everything will be all right.

FRENZY AT WASHINGTON

Four weeks Congress has been fighting a Battle of Capitol Hill. Instead of waning, the struggle has been gaining volume and intensity. Beginning in a patriotic desire to expose fraud and dishonest mischievous acts or policies, it has developed into what looks like a free-for-all struggle.

A calm spirit of investigation has given place to partisan passion. Though the desire for reform may be really paramount, the fighting Senators and Representatives, what the public most clearly in recent days is a frenzied political scramble, with every political group jockeying for campaign advantage and trying to "hang something on" its opponents.

Here is a characteristic paragraph from a correspondent's account of a typical day in the Senate last week:

"With the chamber echoing personal exchanges and acrimonious clashes that have few parallels in the history of that body, marked by shouted charges and counter-charges, with epithets which include 'character assassin', 'murderer', 'falsehood', 'liar' and other terms not often heard in congressional circles, the Senate fought until six o'clock tonight, unable to reach a vote on the pending resolution which was the storm center of today's battle."

Such conduct is not only foolish, because it is not calculated to accomplish what needs accomplishing; it is shameful, disgracing the country those lawmakers represent. The public has not lost its head as Congress has. The public would like to lay a calm hand on Congress's fevered forehead and recall it to its sober senses and its duty.

The job that needs doing at Washington is not a case for a howling mob bent on lynching. It is a job for political and governmental surgeons. And good surgeons keep their heads and shirts on.

Progress Editorials for Women

AN ALL IMPORTANT QUESTION

By FLORENCE DAVIES

Billie, brown eyed and smiling, was serenely "darning" his classmate. "A race with youngsters is better than himself." The girl was getting desperate; teacher and mother put their heads together. Wordy conferences were held. Some were in favor of military school, another said, "leave him to us," still another suggested, "Take him home and tutor him a while."

The whole incident was typical of many others which have taken place in hundreds of homes. But the interesting thing about it was that thru it all only one question was raised. Nobody said "What ought to be done. Billy for being such a bad boy?" Instead everybody asked, "What is best for the child?"

When we all get to that point in dealing with children, we may begin to hope for a happier, better race. But don't imagine for a minute that the question was "What does the child want?"

Too many modern parents, alas, have interpreted the new attitude toward children and their rights in the best possible manner in life in that destructive way. For merely giving a child what he wants without the slightest reference to what seems best for him is rather more destructive than constructive.

Too many children are not "brought up" these days. They aren't even "dragged up" as the slang expresses it. They "drag up" their parents, who are ignominiously pulled along by the force of their children's desires.

If that had been the case with Billie, he would probably have been left in school with his good friends and his teachers who fixed his sunny smiles in spite of his darning, and there he would have been allowed to dawdle along and be happy in his race with youngsters and better than himself.

But that isn't what happened. He came happily, parents of today are learning to get through the child's mind, and then doing the thing that is best for their mental and physical development.

The older way was to consider the child from a lofty height, much as men used to believe that God guided their destinies, by looking down upon them from afar and pulling a lot of strings that made things happen. So the parent of an older day often treated his children. He gave them what they needed to eat and wear, provided for their education and amusement but he operated on an entirely different plane. If the child prospered, it was well. If, at an early age, it began to look as if the child was going to turn out poorly, it was a matter for regret. But it was considered as more or less inevitable.

Today every child is a living breathing problem, or he should be, and the fact that he lags in his classes or develops a temper isn't accepted as final. It is merely taken as a symptom, and parents and teachers look for the cause and try to remedy it.

In spite of the fact that there are still groups of children who are shamefully wronged by being put to work long before their time, the fact remains that in general we have advanced in our attitude toward children. "What is best for this child's development?" is the touchstone by which many a problem is decided these days.

How to care for Dull Hair

Just washing hair cleans it, yet what a difference in its appearance a little bluing makes! Like lips, hair requires something more than soap and water to make it really beautiful. If you honestly want luster, brightness, and beauty in your hair, you must use the Golden Gint Shampoo. It gives the hair a natural radiance truly beautiful, a long-lived brightness that long between shampoos, a delicate color emphasis easily suited to your own particular shade. You'll never know how really well your hair can look until you've had a Golden Gint Shampoo. Try one, and you'll try all druggists.

COSTA RICA CLARE

NOT SERIOUS

Panama, Canal Zone, March 5 (INS).—Relief work was rushed today for the thousands of Costa Ricans made homeless by earthquakes. While the damage was heavy, especially at San Jose, the capital, and Heredia, the loss of life was light.

Five strong shocks were felt at San Jose at intervals of 15 to 20 minutes.

According to one report, there was no loss of life in the capital, but the people were thrown into panic and many were injured.

Quite a Difference.
Difference between enthusiasm and gush is that enthusiasm is not applied to the trivial.

SAMUEL MITCHELL WINS FIRST CHECKER MATCH

The first match of the checker tournament for the men of Clearfield was played at the Y. M. C. A. last night between two of the most promising entries of the championship tourney.

Samuel R. Mitchell, a two-hour contest with William E. Muntz, succeeded in taking the last two games after losing the first after a hard battle.

The game was called promptly at 7:45, and Muntz had the edge on his opponent in the beginning, probably the result of preliminary practice with one of Clearfield's oldest and most experienced checker players.

After the first ten minutes he succeeded in gaining a checker on the smiling Mitchell and brought it down to a three to two play with Muntz in the lead. He seemed to play a little then, like a cat does when it has caught the mouse, and gave his opponent two for one, leaving the game with one each, or an evident draw.

But Muntz had the move on his opponent and quickly cornered him and was declared the winner of the first game of the tournament.

The loss just seemed to put Mitchell's wits on edge, and he found himself at his best. He gradually overcame Muntz's aggressive playing and soon had him five to two and won the second game. The third game proved the real acid test, and the by-standers witnessed a thrilling game. Muntz overbooked an exceptional opportunity to play one of the simple book moves and was finally overcome through the steady and scientific game of the winner. Mr. Mitchell will rest until the outcome of the match between Roy I. Fulton and Gordon Herrington, as he is scheduled to play the winner.

Several other games were in process among the men in the lobby, showing that an increasing number of men are enjoying the quiet fellowship of checkers at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday evening sessions. L. N. Rougeaux and L. J. Shankle, two of the popular bookkeepers of the County National Bank. A number of checker fans have dropped in expressing their regrets at not having entered the tournament; others have handed their names in for a chess tournament, which promises to attract even more attention, and a new group of men into friendly contests. There is felt a real need for one or two more checker tables in addition to the handsome one now in use in the Y. M. C. A. lobby, which is made of heavy slate with colors burned on by an expert workman, and covered with glass.

M. P. MacDonald, whose business takes up his time every night except Saturday, has consented to help arouse interest in the checker tournament for the Intermediate members of the Y. M. C. A., boys from 15 to 18.

To Our Subscribers

Last year we added thirty millions of dollars' worth of plant for the telephone service of Pennsylvania. We told you about this through the public press and by various other means. We want you to know our job and how we are doing it. In a public service such as this the public should have all the facts.

Many of our subscribers are asking the questions—Why all this rush? Why all these new buildings? Construction costs are high these days. Why this tremendous expansion of your switchboards and lines? Why not take it a little easier?

Fair questions! And they merit a four-square answer.

During the next few weeks we will endeavor to tell exactly what we have been doing, what we expect to do in the next four or five years—and most important of all—why we are doing it.

WILLIAMS—LEWIS

On Saturday morning at ten o'clock Rev. E. C. Reeve, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, married Miss D. F. Williams, and Miss Myrtle V. Lewis in the manse. Mr. Williams' home is in Berwick, and the bride's home in Montvale. They were accompanied by Miss Margaret Williams, sister of the groom. Heartiest congratulations.

POPULAR COUPLE WED

Francis Kelly, of Curwensville and Miss Julia Dockett, of Clearfield were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Father Ryan at St. Francis Church at four o'clock yesterday afternoon. The attendants were R. E. Dockett and Owen Kelly. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the bride's home, after which the newly wedded couple left for Buffalo and Endicott, followed by best wishes of a host of friends. The bride has been a valued employee of the A. W. Leonardson Company for the past two years and the groom is an employee of the Erie Mining Company at Curwensville.

STERLING—HUTTON

Lawrence R. Sterling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sterling, of Kermoo, and Miss Madeline L. Hutton, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus T. Hutton, of 210 McBride street were united in marriage at 7:45 this morning in the Lutheran parsonage by the Rev. E. Roy Hansen. The beautiful ring ceremony of the church was used. The bridegroom is a telegraph operator for the Western Union. They will reside at 610 McBride street. The many friends of these young people wish them a happy voyage over the sea of life.

Woman Surprises Her Friends

"After a spell of Typhoid Fever 7 years ago I began to suffer from indigestion and gas in my stomach and colic attacks. This gradually became so bad that my doctor advised an operation for gall stones. A friend advised me to try May's Wonderful Remedy which I did with splendid results. My friends were astonished at my rapid improvement. I have no more bloating and can eat anything I wish. It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded at all druggists."

ROLAND TOOTE

Roland Toote, a former resident of Wood and Clearfield died at his home in Pittsburgh Friday morning, February 29, 1924, at 7:30 o'clock. He was a sufferer of asthma for a number of years but about four weeks ago he suffered an acute attack which caused his death.

He was the son of the late John and Sarah Toote of Clearfield and was born February 17, 1868, being aged 56 years and 12 days.

On the 25th day of January 1897, Mr. Toote was united in marriage to Miss Ella Young of Woodland, who survives him. To this union two sons and one daughter were born. Namely, Mrs. F. E. Johnstonbaugh, of Clearfield, David Beryl, deceased and

Clarence E. Toote, of Pittsburgh. He is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Thomas of Akron, Ohio; William, of Lancaster; Frank of DuBois; Mrs. A. Mader, of Galitzin; Mrs. George Knorr, of Pittsburgh; and Jesse and Ira, of Clearfield. Mr. Toote will be remembered by a number of his friends as a great baseball player in his earlier days.

He was taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. E. Johnstonbaugh, 38 William street and funeral services were conducted in the U. B. Church of Woodland Monday afternoon, March 3rd at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. B. H. officiating and interment in Bradford cemetery.

FORMER LOCAL GIRL DIES

Mary W. Baker, a graduate of the Clearfield Hospital training school for nurses, died at her home at the Harrisburg hospital. Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 10:30 at Gettysburg, Pa.

The deceased was the daughter of

Rev. Baker of St. John's Lutheran church. Miss Baker was acting Superintendent of one of the Harrisburg hospitals. We understand her death was caused by diphtheria.

FUNERAL OF S. C. WATTS

The funeral of S. C. Watts will be held at the home of his brother D. H. Watts, Ferguson Township on Thursday, at 2:30 p. m.

EAST END RESIDENT DIES

Antonio Brucina, a respected resident of Eleventh street, Fourth Ward, passed away at the Clearfield hospital Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Death was due to internal hemorrhages. The deceased was an industrious, hard-working man and had been an employee of the Harrison-Walker Refractories Company for a number of years.

He was aged 44 years and is survived by a widow and six children.

The funeral will be held from St. Francis Church at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. Interment will be made in Calvary cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fontenoy entertained a number of their friends at a p. m. Luncheon party at their home on Second street last night. The evening was spent in playing cards until 11:30 p. m. when each person was given a musical instrument, (favor) and for the next fifteen minutes the air was filled with melodious sounds, after which delicious refreshments were served. The guests then departed for their various homes.

During their host and hostess of 1 having had a very pleasant evening.

A party was given at the home of Mrs. Henry Wiggins last evening in honor of Irvin Williams of Pittsburgh. Refreshments were served and all had an enjoyable time.

A Wistful Girl's Timid Smile

Plaintive beauty, dainty grace and lissome figure stirred the pulse of a rich nobleman whose hirelings stole her away from her blind sister and took her to his midnight fete. A handsome young aristocrat lost his heart, avenged her with his sword, took her to safety. She met another—a leader of the People. He, too, loved her. The fatal duel in the midst of the gorgeous splendors of a regal orgy as thousands of the starving rabble clamored at the palace gates; the love of the young aristocrat for the country-bred Henriette, and the love she inspired in the heart of Danton, leader of the uprising against the French Monarchy—These things, each punctuated by a kiss, formed a chain of circumstances that quickened the seditious People into open and armed rebellion—that brought the Fall of the Bastille—the "Feast of Reason" when all Paris went mad—the "Dance of the Carmagnole" when woman led the wild revelry. Then came the Commune—the Reign of Terror—the Guillotine—the downfall of Danton, leader—the sentence of death—the reprieve—Peace! And so, all because of Love, a King was deposed, a great monarchy fell, a great republic came into being.

Gossip for Tonight's Tea Table

Rev. Frank P. Flegel, of Oakland, Cal., is in town visiting relatives. Rev. Flegel is one of the prominent clergy men of the Pacific slope. He is attending at the National Convention of District Deputies of the M. E. church at Pittsburgh, being a member of that distinguished body. He was a son of Scott Flegel of Goshen and spent today in Goshen looking up boyhood friends. He is a cousin of Miss Mervie and Clark Flegel and second cousin of Walter, Horace and John Flegel.

Miss Knapp, a Junior High teacher spent the week end at her home in State College.

Under the splendid leadership of the director Miss Gladys Dunkle, the choir rendered some fine music during the services. After the services were over they were invited into the social rooms where a substantial luncheon was served. The two choirs then joined in an impromptu song service which was equally enjoyed by both the singers and listeners. Miss

Milk Consuming Peoples Outstrip Nations Using Other Foods

The Swiss and Swedish nations have so far outstripped the Chinese and Japanese that there is little or no comparison. China is probably one of the oldest nations on the earth, yet as a whole they are NOT a milk consuming people, and their smallness of stature shows it—their food lacks the vital dietary needs to make their bodies attain larger proportions. Then, just look at the Swedish and Swiss. Here you will find two nations, high in intellectual attainments and sturdy of body—they consume, probably, more milk and milk products than any other nations of the globe with the possible exception of the United States.

This is a concrete example—an example which stands forth among the nations of the earth and one which you may ponder over with this idea in mind: Have our wagonman place a greater amount of milk in your home and begin to use it more in your own diet, not necessarily as a beverage but in the preparation of dishes in your daily menus.

And When You Use Our Milk You Are Sure That You Are Getting Pure Milk As It Has Gone Thru The Pasteurization Process.
